“Obama Education Plan Collides With College Readiness.”

These powerful words come from Raymond Gerson, a college professor and author of Learn How to Achieve College Success...In 20 Hours or Less.

Raymond provides an informative and passionate interview. He'll tell your audience:

- Why President's Obama's education plan is praise worthy, but is not achievable right now?
- What are the real numbers of high school graduates who are not ready for college?
- What are the consequences for our students and society when so many lack a post-secondary education?
- What skills are needed to succeed both in school and in our 21st century workforce?
- What are examples of schools getting positive results and why?
- How is it possible for students to succeed in college in 20 hours or less?
- What is an example of a learning strategy students can use for college achievement?
- Where can students take an online two minute college success evaluation quiz and instantly receive a free customized report?

Raymond Gerson's enthusiasm and practical ideas will thrill your audience.
